Lent is here. Choose a Lenten practice that will help you grow in faith. Perhaps that is reading the Bible or a spiritual book. Perhaps it is adopting a practice of prayer each day. Perhaps it is fasting. Perhaps it is doing charity work. Perhaps it is going to daily Mass one day each week or joining in Soup and Stations at 6:00 PM on Fridays. I know many people found our 5:30 PM Wednesday Evening Mass to be a great Lenten practice. One online resource you may want to check out that will emphasize the main themes of the book "Resisting Happiness" is dynamiccatholic.com and their best Lent ever program. Sign up and you will receive a 2-3 minute video each day. Make a plan and live your plan so that Christ's joy might become your joy during this Lent.

The Wednesday Evening Mass at 5:30 PM will be in the Worship Space rather than the Daily Chapel.

Remember our LIFE event—Steps to Forgiveness is this Sunday, March 5th and Wednesday, March 9th.

Lent is a time for abstinence from meat on Fridays as a nod to tradition, but also as a small way to be in solidarity with all those who do not have enough to eat. Traditionally fish is allowed as it is not a warm blooded meat.

Our Annual Fund this year will address many of the hundred small things that can make a building show its age. We want to do a number of projects such as tile the floor in the catacombs, replace the wallpaper in the Worship Space with tile, replace the lights and tile ceiling above the south side of the Gathering Space and in the Reconciliation Chapel, update technology where needed as well as accomplish a number of other smaller projects. We plan to do most of these projects with the gifts of the time and

Stewardship –
 “Growing in Faith Together”

At the beginning of this Lenten season we hear proclaimed the story of Jesus’ temptation in the desert. He responds to the first temptation by saying that one does not live by bread alone but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God. The season of Lent invites us to consider how we nourish our hearts, how we act as stewards of the Word of God entrusted to us. A good reflection for the week: What do we live on? What keeps us going? Could it be possessions, prestige, the need to be in control, the need for security, addictions? Or the fervent desire to listen to God’s word?

Tickets are now on sale for “All Dressed Up” - Tablescapes & Fashion Show to be held Saturday, April 1. Come see festive tables decorated by our parishioners; enjoy a brunch and Fashion Show on Saturday. Gay Muenchrath of GM Clothes Horse is providing our fashion show. We will also have a

MARRIAGES

Congratulations! Diocesan policy states that you contact Father Kent at least 4 months in advance so marriage preparations can be scheduled.

Preview party on Friday night, March 31; wine and appetizers served and we will have live music. All proceeds will benefit our St. Vincent de Paul Society, Andover Community Summer Lunch Program and Flint Hills Services.

Hospitality is more than just coffee and donuts! If you enjoy talking with visitors and fellow parishioners, this is a great volunteer opportunity for you. Ministers are needed to share a smile, serve coffee and juice and create a sense of community and friendship. You are able to select preferred Mass times. This is a great family stewardship opportunity. For more information contact Michele in the parish office.
