Pastor's Perspectives

Stewardship calls us to be fully alive as missionary disciples. Being a missionary disciple doesn't mean traveling around the world, but instead it's bringing Christ's light to every part of your life. The challenge is two-fold. First we need to constantly grow in faith so Christ can be seen in us and we can see Christ in others. The Eucharist, Scripture, prayer and community are keys to this growth in Christ. They are an important part of the time we give back to God. They also bring joy and peace to our lives.

The second part of the challenge is to share Christ with others. We do that through service in the Church and beyond. It's not about preaching, but living in a way that makes God's love visible and meets the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the person whom we are with. So reflect on how you are called to live stewardship; how you are called to grow in love of God and neighbor. Make a plan and return your stewardship commitment form by Nov. 18th.

Remember our LIFE Event tonight Sunday, Nov. 4th. It will be repeated Wednesday night on Nov. 7 (adults only on Wednesday).

Bishop Kemme is asking us to join in prayer and penance during this week of Nov. 5-11 in preparation for the U.S. bishops' meeting this month. He asks us to pray that the bishops may follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit in responding to the tragedy of clergy sexual abuse in the Church. Specifically, Bishop Kemme points to the following three intentions: for the healing and support of all victims of clergy sexual abuse; for the conversion and just punishment of the perpetrators and concealers of sexual abuse; for the strength of bishops to protect and lead their people from all harm.

The murders at the Pittsburgh Synagogue were born from hatred and anti-Semitism. These violent acts make the dangers of scapegoating, tribalism and racism tragically visible. These evils come from deep within the human heart. We mourn the victims but we must do more. We must stand against any type of hate speech, which feeds these negative human instincts. Hate speech leads to hateful actions. We as Catholics must never be a part of such speech. Words matter. Internet posts matter. Hatred must be rejected wherever it is seen. Instead we are to see the face of Christ in each and every person on earth. The Holy Spirit calls us to act with love, goodness, gentleness and kindness. We must feed the good instincts of the human person and society toward empathy and love, both in our words and actions.

Stewardship – “Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us the two great commandments - First, you will love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. Second, you will love your neighbor as yourself. These commandments not only encompass all 10 commandments given to Moses, they also encompass Stewardship, as we define it in our diocese. To be "fully alive as a missionary disciples" requires us to recognize and receive God's gifts and to share those gifts in love of God and neighbor. Whether you proclaim God's word as a reader, hold a regular hour of Adoration, serve on a committee, visit a sick neighbor, or even participate in the election process as a citizen, you are practicing Stewardship. When you do these things out of love (rather than obligation), you are showing your dedication to God and your neighbor. The scribe in today's reading understood that love for God and neighbor is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices any person could offer. Clearly love is key to discipleship.

Don't forget to return your stewardship form or complete it on-line. There are so many opportunities for you to share your time and talents and we encourage you to try new ministries as you and your family grow in faith through prayer and service. You are never too old or too young to be active in our parish and we invite you to share in our LIFE events, Bible study and other parish activities to get to know others. It is never too late to start enjoying being “fully alive”!
