Please welcome members of the St. Augustine Indian Mission. In conjunction, we will have the annual book sale with all proceeds benefiting the mission. Join us after the Masses for significant discounts on print/audio books, while helping educate the children of the Winnebago and Omaha Nations.

Andover Caring and Sharing – we invite you to help! Andover Caring and sharing helps families in our community by providing gifts for children and holiday food baskets for families. Please drop your gift or food items off at the box in the gathering space, or you can make a donation and we will shop for gift items. We will be providing gifts for over 100 children, ages 1- 17. Volunteers are needed to help with sorting, wrapping gifts and helping with crafts that the children will make. For more information, please call the parish office.

Calling all Mass helpers!
