33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear parishioners,

Today's Gospel can either be a consolation or a source of anxiety. Jesus said "but of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the sun, but only the father. "

What are we to make of this? We like the security of knowing what's going to happen next. Yet our lives are simply a gift from God the father, and we do not completely understand what will happen next, or even why.

Notice that Jesus said that even the sun does not know. And so far Jesus is human, he had only human knowledge of the future. He, like us had to place his trust in God the father.

As we renew our stewardship of life, one of the great ways that we can be a good steward, is trust. Trust that the Lord is in the small events of our life, and he will be with us in the big events of our life in the future.

We can follow the example of Jesus and Mary and our trust in God the Father. This is what it means to live the stewardship of life

10-2 Fire of the Sages: The Earliest Church in its Jewish Context

December 17, 10:00am - 2:00pm -

Dr. Matthew Umbarger

What was Jesus thinking when He gave us the Church? To answer that question, in part, we have to delve deep into the Jewish roots of the Church, because surely Judaism was the assumed context of Jesus and the Apostles. During this 10-2, Dr. Umbarger will consider Catholic Christianity as a development within Second Temple Judaism (Jewish traditions that flourished between 538 BC and 70 AD), while focusing on Catholic liturgy (Mass and Liturgy of the Hours) and ecclesiology (the theology of the Church) as Jewish expressions of Messianic faith. $25, lunch is included.

Saint of the Week

The Story of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary
November 21

Mary's presentation was celebrated in Jerusalem in the sixth century. A church was built there in honor of this mystery. The Eastern Church was more interested in the feast, but it does appear in the West in the 11th century. Although the feast at times disappeared from the calendar, in the 16th century it became a feast of the universal Church.

As with Mary's birth, we read of Mary's presentation in the temple only in apocryphal literature. In what is recognized as an unhistorical account, the Protoevangelium of James tells us that Anna and Joachim offered Mary to God in the Temple when she was 3 years old. This was to carry out a promise made to God when Anna was still childless.

Though it cannot be proven historically, Mary's presentation has an important theological purpose. It continues the impact of the feasts of the Immaculate Conception and of the birth of Mary. It emphasizes that the holiness conferred on Mary from the beginning of her life on earth continued through her early childhood and beyond.

Reflection

It is sometimes difficult for modern Westerners to appreciate a feast like this. The Eastern Church, however, was quite open to this feast and even somewhat insistent about celebrating it. Even though the feast has no basis in history, it stresses an important truth about Mary: From the beginning of her life, she was dedicated to God. She herself became a greater temple than any made by hands. God came to dwell in her in a marvelous manner and sanctified her for her unique role in God's saving work. At the same time, the magnificence of Mary enriches her children. They—we—too are temples of God and sanctified in order that we might enjoy and share in God's saving work.
